- Be a Key@Work program member and have direct deposits that total at least $5,000 or more during each statement cycle.

ATM Transactions

With convenient locations, strict security and features that save time, Key ATMs help you bank on the go. However, when a Key ATM isn’t available, fees can occur. Here’s a clear list of fees and charges you could encounter:

KeyBank ATMs

- No fee Key Privilege Select account holders do not pay ATM fees when using a KeyBank ATM.
- No fee Printed mini-statement when you request your account balance.

Non-KeyBank ATMs

As a Key Privilege Select account holder, when you use your KeyBank debit card you will receive a refund for each charge. These surcharges will be included with the total withdrawal transaction amount, and reimbursed at the end of the statement cycle.

Foreign Country ATMs

- No fee International fee based on percentage of transaction.
Overdrafts and Non-Sufficient Funds

Despite careful planning, overdrafts sometimes happen. Here’s a straightforward look at a list of fees and charges you could encounter:

Overdraft and Non-Sufficient Funds Fees
We assess these fees based on the number of times overdraft or non-sufficient funds transactions have occurred in the current statement cycle plus the previous 11 statement cycles. If you’d like more information about overdraft and non-sufficient funds transaction fees, and how you can avoid them, please visit key.com/odinfo.

$33.00 Per transaction, for the first two overdraft or non-sufficient funds transactions in the current or last 11 statement cycles. This will appear as “Overdraft Item or Return Item Charge” on your statement.

$38.50 Per transaction, for 3+ overdraft or non-sufficient funds transactions in the current or last 11 statement cycles. This will appear as “Tier 2 Overdraft Item or Return Item Charge” on your statement.

$28.50 Extended overdraft service charge that occurs when your account remains overdrawn for 5 consecutive business days.

Please refer to your account agreement for important information about the order in which Key posts transactions to your account.

How to Avoid Overdrafts
There are a number of ways to avoid overdraft and/or non-sufficient funds fees:

Track Your Balance – It’s easy to do with Key online and mobile banking.

Set Up Account Alerts – They’ll let you know when deposits or payments are posted to your account, or when your account goes below a particular balance.²

Use Overdraft Protection – Link your Key Privilege Select account to another KeyBank account, such as a savings account, Preferred Line of Credit, Home Equity Line of Credit³ or credit card. Your linked account will automatically transfer funds to your Key Privilege Select account to cover any overdrafts. If overdraft protection is linked to a savings account, then there is no transfer fee. If you choose to link to a credit product, an overdraft protection transfer fee may apply, but you may save money by avoiding overdraft fees and any non-sufficient funds fees that could be charged⁴.

When Your Deposits Are Available
Different types of deposits (cash, direct deposit, checks) become available at different times:

Same Business Day – Direct deposits of electronic payments such as Social Security benefits and payroll. Cash deposits made at a KeyBank ATM. Check deposits made at a KeyBank ATM ($100.00 will be available immediately, with the rest posting the following day).

Next Business Day – Checks drawn on KeyBank (in some instances funds may be available on the same business day of deposit). Check deposits made through the KeyBank mobile app. Remaining balances from checks deposited the prior day.

A business day is Monday - Friday, not including holidays. Exceptions may apply.
