

The numbers are staggering. Payment fraud is everywhere.

74%

of organizations were targets of payments fraud in 2016

According to the 2017 AFP Payments Fraud and Control Survey:

74%

reported that their organizations were exposed to BEC

(Business Email Compromise), a 10% increase from the prior year

74%

of organizations subject to payments fraud were victims of check fraud

46%

of companies reported wire fraud incidents, which is up dramatically from 14% in 2013

Data breach statistics

15%

of all unique users who fell victim to phishing once, also took the bait for a second time.

7 of the top 15

threat action varieties are functionalities of malware.

Social attacks were utilized in 43% of all breaches.

Ransomware moved from the 22nd most common variety of malware in the 2014 DBIR to the most common in this year's data.

5th

Source: Verizon's 2017 Data Breach Investigations Report

If you suspect you are a victim of fraud or malware, call Key's Fraud and Disputes Hotline directly at 1-800-433-0124 for analysis of the situation and further direction. Then contact your Relationship Manager to make them aware of the issue.

To learn more, contact your Relationship Manager, or visit key.com/security.